"We look out for one another."

President Barack Obama

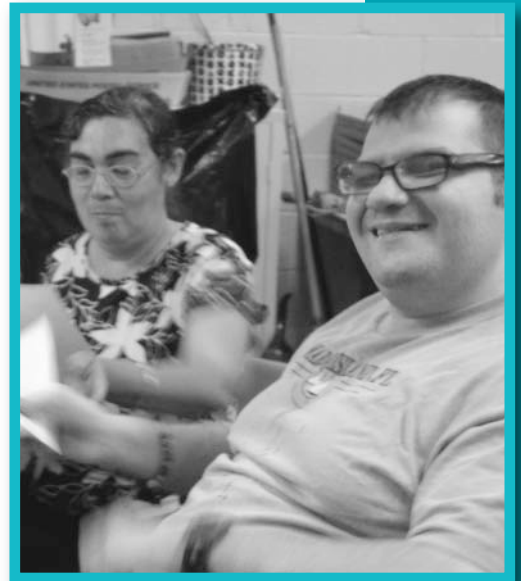

My dear friend,

Yes, we do look out for one another. Every day we look out for one another. We look out for the Thomas family – and hundreds like them – who received a holiday food basket and warm clothing to replace the losses from Hurricane Sandy. We look out for Diane and 15 other disabled residents as they learn new skills and new independence in our Supervised Apartments. We look out for Gerald and nearly 50 other disabled participants in our Windmill Center, as they work toward self-sufficiency and provide service to our community by recycling and shredding.

Yes, our volunteers and staff do incredible work everyday, but they can't do it alone. They need your support. Do your part, please. Together we can continue to make a difference in this community.

Let today be the day that you say Yes and contribute to the Windmill Alliance. Make a difference now.

Your gift, when combined with the gifts of our other caring donors, makes it possible for us to help those who are less fortunate in our community: by feeding, clothing and caring for the 15 residents in our Supervised Apartments, or ensuring that each of our 50 adult participants in the Windmill Center are supported by caring, trained staff so that they can learn to lead more productive and independent lives.

- The Windmill Center: our Adult Day Training Center for 50 developmentally disabled adults
- The Supervised Apartments: our residential program which provides 24/7 nurturing care in a homelike environment for 16 developmentally disabled and multiply-handicapped residents
- H.I.G.H.W.A.Y.S.: our multi-service program serving the most needy in our community through our emergency food pantry, donations of clothing, furniture and household goods, and crisis intervention, counseling and job training

Today, through your donation to Windmill Alliance, you can touch a life in a positive, transformational way. By investing in people like Diane, Gerald and the Thomas family, you are making one of the most powerful investments you can make in your community. Please, be as generous as possible. You can donate by check, credit card or securely online at www.windmillalliance.org.

Thank you for leading the way in supporting the Windmill Alliance, and for being a hero to our participants. Even if you have never experienced disability, abandonment or loss, you surely can understand how the assistance that the Windmill Alliance offers in our community enriches the lives of so many people. Please say Yes, Today.

Gratefully,

The Rev. Gregory G. Perez
